

The Thief in the Night

The Thief in the Night is a letter written to the Youth of America, the last hope for the future of our dying republic and of what will become of our civil liberties and nearly extinct sense of humanity. This is that last ditch effort to wake up that friend who is in need or is in trouble and you cant do anything about it. Have no illusions, this is not a self-help book nor do I present you with solutions to your problems. I simply offer the truth, take it or leave it. This book will describe in general detail the state of our public school system and should be read by every student in America so that they may come to understand the too often confusing mess that is Public Education. Lets face it, the best education is the education we give ourselves.
